CANON I.

Election of a Bishop

WHEREAS, in the basis of division of the Diocese of New Westminster, agreed upon by the Synod of the undivided Diocese, held in Vancouver, November 8th, 1899, and confirmed at the first Synod of Kootenay, held at Nelson, May 30th, 1900, provision was made, under certain conditions, for the election by the Synod of the first Bishop of Kootenay, and whereas it is desirable to provide for such election and for the succession of the Episcopate in the Diocese of Kootenay; be it enacted that:—

1. Whenever the Executive of the said Diocese of Kootenay shall certify to the Lord Bishop of New Westminster that a sum of Forty Thousand Dollars has been raised and securely invested for the Endowment of the Bishopric, or in the meantime that a minimum stipend of not less than Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500.00) a year has been guaranteed to the satisfaction of a majority of the Bishops occupying Sees in British Columbia, and they shall so certify in writing; or in case of a subsequent vacancy in the See, they shall proceed to the election of a Bishop in the following manner:—
2. Within thirty days of the date of the above certificate, or after such vacancy shall have occurred, the Executive Committee shall summon the Synod for the election of a Bishop.
3. Such meeting shall be held at such place as the Executive Committee shall name, not less than sixty, nor more than ninety days from the date of the said certificate, or the vacancy in the See, at which meeting no other business but such election shall be proceeded with.
4. The Archdeacon of Kootenay, or if there be no Archdeacon, or in his absence or inability to attend, the Clerical member of the Executive Committee who has been longest on the roll of the Licensed Clergy in the Province of British Columbia shall be Chairman of the meeting.
5. On the day, and at the place appointed, after the celebration of Holy Communion, the Chairman shall proceed to organize the meeting in accordance with the Rules of Order.
6. If on calling the roll it shall be found that there are at least one-half of the members of each Order present, it shall be competent for any member to nominate a person for the office of Bishop, after which nomination, or nominations, the Lay Delegates shall form themselves into a separate chamber for the purpose of voting. But if it shall be found that there are fewer than one-half of the members present, the meeting shall adjourn to any day within a week, and from time to time until the required number shall assemble.

7. The person who shall be chosen by the votes taken by ballot, of a majority of the Clergy, and a majority of the Lay Delegates, voting in separate chambers, shall be deemed elected to the office of Bishop of the Diocese.

8. It shall be competent for the two chambers to re-assemble in Synod at any time for the purpose of receiving additional nominations, or for consultation.

9. In no case shall the person elected have jurisdiction over the Diocese, until his election shall have been confirmed by a majority of the members of the House of Bishops of the General Synod of Canada; provided that when an Ecclesiastical Province is formed in British Columbia it shall suffice that the election be confirmed by a majority of the Bishops of the said Province. And if the election be not confirmed as aforesaid within three months, the same shall be considered null and void, and shall be so declared by the Executive Committee, and thereupon a new election shall be held in accordance with the provisions of this Canon.

10. The person elected to the office of Bishop shall, previous to his consecration, promise obedience to the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese, by subscribing the Declaration of Submission provided in the Constitution of the Synod, which Declaration signed by the Bishop-elect, or a certified copy thereof, shall be filed with the Registrar of the Diocese.

11. The choice of the Synod shall be immediately notified in writing by the Chairman and Secretary to the Primate of all Canada, who shall proceed to make arrangements for the consecration of the Bishop-elect: Provided that if an Ecclesiastical Province be formed, then the Metropolitan of the Province for the time being shall act in the place of the Primate.

Order of Proceedings to be observed at the Election of the Bishop.

At 7:30 a.m., Holy Communion.

At 9:30 a.m., Mattins, Holy Communion and Sermon.

At 11:00 a.m., the Archdeacon will take the Chair and the Synod will proceed to business.

All proceedings at the balloting to be with closed doors until the final declaration of the result is made.

Opening prayer for the occasion.

The Chairman shall appoint a committee to examine and report upon the claims of the Lay Delegates to seats in the Synod. See Section 6, "Canon on the Election of a Bishop," also Article III of the Constitution.

All objections shall be referred to the Synod for final allowance or rejection.

As soon as the names of the Clergy and Lay Delegates shall be ascertained the list shall be signed by the Chairman of the Synod.

All members of the Synod present shall sign their names in a book provided for the purpose.

A delegate nominating a person for election shall first write the name of the candidate without signing his name to the paper; then he shall stand up and nominate his candidate, then he shall hand in the slip containing the name of his candidate to the Chairman and then take his seat.

The Chairman shall appoint Scrutineers to take the ballot as follows:

For the Clergy, two Clergymen and one Lay Delegate.

For the Lay vote, two Lay Delegates and one Clergyman.

The list of those entitled to vote shall be handed to the Secretaries and Scrutineers, and no one not on that list shall be entitled to vote.

The Synod having been called to order, the Clergy on the right of the Chair, and the Lay Delegates on the left, the Chairman will request that a few moments shall be devoted to private prayer, and that during the proceedings there shall be no manifestations of feeling, but that all, by quiet and orderly demeanor, shall pay the deepest respect to the solemnity of the sacred duty in which they are engaged.

The voting shall then commence according to the following regulations:

Voting shall be in separate chambers.

Votes shall be taken by ballot, and the Laity shall form themselves into a separate chamber for voting.

All ballot papers shall be stamped by the Scrutineers before being delivered to the voters.

The list of the Clergy shall be called over by the Clerical Secretary and the list of the Lay Delegates by the Lay Secretary.

During the balloting every person shall keep his seat until his name is called by the Secretary, he shall then approach the Scrutineer's table, receive a ballot paper and retire to the table provided for the purpose, where he shall write the name of the person for whom he votes, he shall then return his ballot paper, folded with the stamp outside, to the Scrutineers.

The ballot paper shall be placed by the Scrutineers in the ballot box and the voter shall return to his seat, the name of the person voting shall then be marked off by the Secretaries; all names shall be called in like manner until the list is exhausted.

The Scrutineers and Secretaries shall be entitled to vote but their vote must be placed in the ballot box before any one else votes.

The Chairman then, having first asked if all the members who desire to vote, have voted, shall declare the ballot closed.

The Scrutineers shall then retire to a place provided for them and count the ballots. The Scrutineers shall see that the result corresponds with the number of those voting, as ascertained by the Secretaries by the list marked as aforesaid.

The Scrutineers shall hand to the Registrar or his Deputy their report of the result of the ballots, who shall proclaim it to the Synod, at the same time stating the number of Clerical and Lay votes necessary for an election. See Section 7 of the Canon on the Election of a Bishop.

The ballot papers shall be placed by the Secretary in an envelope after each ballot is completed, with the number of the ballot and the initials of the Secretaries placed on the outside, and these envelopes with their contents, shall be destroyed by the Secretaries before the final adjournment of the Synod.

After the ballot is commenced no discussion on points of order shall be verbally raised, but any appeal shall be reduced to writing and presented to the Chairman, whose decision, announced through the Registrar or his Deputy, with the point submitted, shall be final.

It shall be competent for the two Chambers to re-assemble in Synod at any time, for the purpose of receiving additional nominations, or for consultation.

The Synod shall adjourn from time to time until the ballot is completed.

When the balloting is concluded and an election made, the Chairman shall proclaim the result, and declare the Synod adjourned to assemble again at the call of the Chair when the person elected has declared his decision.

Any member may, if requested by any Delegate, speak on behalf of any one who has been nominated, stating any facts about him which might help the Synod to a better knowledge of his qualifications. But neither directly or indirectly shall anything be said reflecting in the least on any other person who has been nominated.

III BEER,

Archdeacon.

we will have him to sing for us
